

Teaching for Change

Popular Education and the Labor Movement

ISBN 0-615-12275-2

T*eaching for Change: Popular Education and the Labor Movement* is the first book to capture the stories and experiences of popular educators in the U.S. labor movement. From the Highlander Center in Tennessee to the Justice for Janitors campaign in Los Angeles, from the National Labor College in Maryland to the Avondale Shipyard workers of Mississippi, popular education has played a critical role in organizing workers, developing new leaders, and strengthening labor and community alliances. While drawing from the rich history of popular educators nationally and internationally, popular educators today are forging a new path based on the changing needs and conditions of workers and unions.

© David Bacon. Reprinted with permission.

Featuring essays by

Susan J. Schurman, National Labor College Elaine Bernard, Harvard Trade Union Program

Jose La Luz, AFSCME Susan Williams, Highlander Center

Susan Washington, AFL-CIO John Hurst, UC Berkeley

Barb Thomas and D'Arcy Martin, Canadian popular educators

$20.00 (includes shipping, handling, and tax)

Name _____ Organization _____

Address _____

Phone _____ E-mail _____

Number of copies _____ x $20.00 = Total amount enclosed _____

Send checks payable to "UC Regents" to:
UCLA Labor Center, Box 951478, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1478
Sorry, no credit card orders. For more information, please call (310) 794-5982